Dear Aunt Margaret, I remember you nicknamed me, "Dimples"... long before I knew what dimples were. It always made me feel special and even now, thinking about it chokes me up a bit (smile). Another special memory is you teaching me to tap dance. At age three or four, I can remember holding onto your coffee table and tap dancing all the way around it! To me, you were the model of gentleness, meekness, and patience. You are always in my heart... Love, Dixie

Annette and family, We are so sorry to hear of Margaret's passing. You may remember that Fred and I worked together for many years at Cities Service Oil Co. He and Nancy were our very best friends. Willie and Raymond were our next door neighbors for a number of years when we lived on Elgen Drive. I did not know Margaret very well but I knew enough about her to know that she was a sweet and gentle person. I'm sure you will remember that both our families were a part of the Kendall Mill village folks. Blessings! Gary and Betty Thornburg
