“ When I was just out of high school she worked at Whitmire Jewelers (I think that was the name). I wanted a ring they had, and she trusted me to make payments. It was my first credit. I never forgot that. After about 20 years, the ring was so worn that I had the stone put into a pendant setting. I think of her, and her trust in me every time I wear it. She was a sweet woman who saw good in people. As a teenager, she made me want to be the person she saw in me. People like Susie make the world a much better place. She will be missed.

“ Such a wonderful and sweet lady. Susie was a true example of Christianity. She taught me in Sunday school at Trinity Methodist many years ago and she directed my wedding in 1980. Prayers and sympathy to all her family. I am sure Susie is now rejoicing with all those who went before her. God has one of his faithful servants home. Such a blessing to all who knew her. From... “ I saw Susie so often when she came to my neighbor’s house. She and Edith were both so dear to me. She always made me laugh with her cute expressions. I’m so honored to have known her and most of this family for so many years.
